The Fastest Paying Online Casinos

This short piece is going to contain some information about the internet's current fastest paying out casinos. There are thousands of casinos but the majority of them have very slow pay out times. There's nothing more annoying than winning money in a casino and then waiting round to get your money.

In my experience, providing that you are using an online wallet, it is possible to get your money within 6 hours of requesting it, at a number of casinos too. One of the UK's biggest online casinos has this payout time too, Inter Casino.

This casino was one of the first ever to come about and even now they are still one of the fairest casinos I have come across. A slight downside however to Inter Casino is that the game play isn't the best, there are other online casinos with better quality game play.

Another casino that pay out in 6 hours is Bet365 Casino and this comes hand in hand with excellent game play. The gaming software they use is Playtech, which is unusual as normally Playtech casinos have slow payout times.

Playtech casinos are known for having slow payout times, it can take up to 6 days before you can get your money. Limited to credit and debit cards, but another Playtech casino with a fast payout time is Totesport casino.

Also there is Ladbrokes, they use Microgaming Software and pay out fast. Ladbrokes has the fastest paying out times out of all the Microgaming casinos and it is considered by many as the top online casino.

Ladbrokes are the only Microgaming casino that I've found that pays out in 6 hours. Another one that pays out within 24 hours is 32Red who were set up by a former Ladbrokes employee.

As far as other fast paying out casinos go, there aren't many I'm afraid. In general, the waiting time for your winnings from an online casino can be anything from 3 to 6 days, therefore there is no reason to play at these casinos. When there is a good choice of online casinos out there that will pay you your winnings within a few hours, it makes no sense at all to instead choose to play at one which will keep you waiting for the best part of a week.
